IT IS A FACT.

And the Paper' Published for the People now on Earth Can Prove It.

-That Sedalia has more firting girls than any city in the state. -That Lee K. Wells, of the Democrat has a namenake in Sedalia.

-That it is only a question til Sedalia secures the capital.

-That there isn't more than half a dozen decent street crowings in the city. -That "Guesie" wasn't as much of a tid bit as come of them took her for.

-That Charlie Schanawerk amokes noth ing but "enipes" is his corn cob pipe. -That Senator McGinnis is not a very good friend of Sedalia or Pettie county. -That Dr. King's "Hash" discounts even that dished up by the Garrison house.

should receive the attention of the county.

That Col. Hamlin can fire the loungers on his arrival there he secured employ-ment at his trade, but had worked only a short time when he -That "Sandy" Muclean will be missed from Jefferson.

-That Warren Galbreath has a solid girl in Lexington, else he would not pay that city so many visite.

-That a pretty dising room girl should not firt with saids theatrical fellows when her colid fellow is in the room. -That "Slickey" Jones' beardless cres

-That the calico ball by the Fidelio Mrs. Clark, it is said, had been cuperate his wasted energies.

That as a point of history we will state that there has been but three committees of one hundred appointed in the United States for any purpose, so far as known. The first was appointed by the city of New York to settle with the Boss Tweed ring; the second -That as a point of history we will state Louis for purposes similar to the first, and the third was appointed in Sedalia yester-day. We also state that in each instance the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the committees have gained the object annual to the first, and the state of the first of the f

Yesterday's Storm. "This is a harl of a storm," remarked one citizen to another, on Ohio street, yearterday afternoon. "Here, I'll have you arrain-ed for awearing on the street if you are not careful," replied the escond citisen. "Don't know weather you will or joined the first man. "You will find out damp quick," said the other. Mud-esty forbids us to add any more of the conver-

A Peast for Bill. Lest night Sedalts division No. 178 locomotive engiencers met for the transaction of lbs. per barrel, at W. J. Bagby inces and for the purpose of giv- & Co's. ing a kind of farewell send-off to a brother member, Mr. B. W. Vedder, who leaves tomorrow to accept a position on the Denver & Rio Grande road. Arrangements had been made with Kniser for a supper for for- which was to have taken place before ty persons, but the inclement weather equire Clinkenbard Friday, was post-would not permit of the ladies coming out, so that part of the programme was dispens-telegram:

Instead, the following members of the W. W. S. Snordy, Sedalia:
order adjourned to Kaiser's and partook of Simon Hoffman's case has been contin B. W. Vedder, J. S. Parish, F Fitzgerald, continue until the 8th if it suits you. Geo. McLain, Chas. Soedaker, Geo. McKee, Jas. Shaefer, Henry Russell, Jas. Marks.
Chas. McNab, Chas. Schanawerk and H. J.
yesterday that he would clear the brothers Smith. It was a jolly crowd, and they had of the offense charged or would saw wood says he will come out O. K. as soon as an a royal good time. They spent something for a living during the balance of his days. like half an bour in partaking of the meal, after which they adjourned, all wishing ville are jealous of the Hoffmans on ac count of their prosperity in business, and Nothing is so conducive

The Crasy man.

The Crasy man.

The Crasy man.

The Crasy man.

Steve Devana, the crasy man, is still bening the period of the crying of a cross baby. All cross and charge of disturbing the peace.

Steve Devana, the crasy man, is still bening the crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is still bening the crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is received last week in this city, charged with drunkenness, again turned up at the but fell by the wayside, and was discover would break out into hunter of the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is received last week in this city, charged with drunkenness, again turned up at the but fell by the wayside, and was discover would break out into hunter of the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is still bening the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is still bening the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is still bening the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is still bening the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and smiling. Young man, is still bening the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying the crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying the crying of a cross baby. All cross and crying t but fell by the wayside, and was discovered and taken best to town, where he resided to remove him to his home, but he follow the filled on the journey. He was a middle on the journey. At an early day.

It was then do was discovered to the matter of presion that into bursts of presion that into the county relieves him, which should grantly to rectiving the single of the citizens of county and the section of youth, meaning the presion to the best of town, where he residence of presion that ing. He was a long to move, continued the matter of presion that ing to move, continued the matter of the meaning to move, continued the matter of the meaning of the citizens of certain to make his bed in the street, whose sided to remove him to his home, but he county relieves him, which should grantly to make his tings of a railroad north to the Chimeral will are place from descently requested to be present.

In this hall on Monday evening, recreasy to the matter to the meaning to move, continued the matter to make his tings of the county relieves him, which should interested and grantly dramk.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, near ting your crywould break out into bursts of present tings your crywould break out into bursts of present the matter to make the interest of the meaning to move, continued the matter to make the station of certains or your tings.

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, near ting your crywould break out into bursts of present tings your crywould break out into bursts of present tings your crywould break out into bursts of present tings your crywould break out into move, can in

CLARK'S CALAMITY.

The Wife of a Former Sedalia MONDAY Plasterer Has Gone Wrong.

She Has Parted From Her Husband and is now a Barkeeper's Mistress.

The name of I. N. Clark is a familiar one to many Sedalians, and rapecially so to -That the blue birds have put in ap- the members of the police force. He was a plasterer, and resided with his family in East Sedalis, where, on many occasions, the police were called to quell a row bea firet-clare whisky guzzler, and white under the influence of the ardens made everything lively for his family and neighbors. per yard.

INMATE OF THE COOLER on many occasions, and after being liber- sts. per yard. ated would swear off and join the Grod Templare. For a time be would brece up, but eventually his appetite for liquor yard. would overcome him and he would again fall in the ditch. While drinking he was quarrelsome, and carcely ever went home without abusing bis wife. After his last spree in Bedalis, some four months ago, he coacinded that That the crasy man in the calabone he would seek pastures new, as he was hould receive the attention of the county.

That Sedalia isn't worrying as much ly bade his wife and children farewell and out. about the capital now as she was a few days left for Kansas City, promising to send for them at no distant day.

FELL PROM A SCAPFOLD at the sacred concert at the Jay Gould this and crippled himself badly, and for a time was unaule to do anything. In the mean--That there was weeping and wailing time his wife, who still remained in Se-in Sedalia Friday when the news came in delia, had formed the acquaintance of a certain west end railroad man, and consid--That a certain young lady of this city has presented Will Messerly with a handcarried on-Mrs. Clark reming to forget How a Twenty-Year-Old Lad

That one of the weddings that was to have occurred on the 15th of March has join him in Kaness City and to bring the children with ber. She at once made pre parations for so doing, and when all the arrangements had been consummated she informed her railroad friend of her in-That the price of board will be raised tention. He would not be so unganous on Henry Meuschke unless be gets away to see her travel alone, and proposed to secompany her a portion of the distance. Of

NO OBJECTION WAS OFFERED. and together they journeyed toward Kan-

will make roast turkey and ice cream look The distance is only ninety-six males, -That J. A. Fisher had 1,300 pool tick-ets yesterday, all of them being won from Jim Merrifield and Will Kerps.

Leading the trip too and his manners were polished, while his the hero of the occasion of the person of the occasion of the

That Bacon Montgomery yesterday grand on the white owl sent to Homer Green from Colorado. He pronounced it a beauty.

HAD HIS SUPPICIONS ABOURD take in the town, and whenever he happened to meet a well dressed person he two months ago he was confirmed in his beauty.

HAD HIS SUPPICIONS ABOURD take in the town, and whenever he happened to meet a well dressed person he would halt him and accost him as follows:

After the lecture the Dean house was surmises by happening in at his home when "My friend, I am an e tire stranger to sgain the scene of action, which, report the town.

That the acreeching by the engines curing the fire yesterday morning was not for the purpose of waking the pulce, as has been reported.

I would like you to hear my atory, and if transpired at that hotel that night will be under testing forever hidden in the breasts of the chief actors. The rect day all hands returned to Butler, taking with them the book pedice, as has been reported.

I would like you to hear my atory, and if transpired at that hotel that night will be under testing forever hidden in the breasts of the chief actors. The rect day all hands returned to Butler, taking with them the book pedice, as has been reported.

This is the way he opened out on Rube Lampton, when he continued:

"I am from the east, and went to Texas the Taken, Kansas Civy."

The above named gentlemen are request-to beligations."

This is the way he opened out on Rube at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of organization and allowed that the fellow must have the next of the call as may been reported.

The above named gentlemen are request-to beligations."

This is the way he opened out on Rube to Butler, taking with them the book pedice, who registered at the Palace hotel as that hotel that night will be under testing forever hidden in the breasts of the chief actors. The rect day all hands returned to Butler, taking with them the book pedice, who registered at the Palace hotel as the chief of the chief actors. The rect day all hands returned to Butler, taking with them the book pedice, as has been reported.

The above named gentlemen are request-to beligations."

The shows named gen

That the demi-monds were out in full force on the street yesterday afternoon fuller than biled owls, trying to straddle all the streets at once, but made a finile of the job.

That the calico ball by the Fidelic of the job.

That the calico ball by the Fidelic of the job.

That the calico ball by the Fidelic of the job.

The fidelic of the job. club on Thursday evening next will be a spending considerable MONEY, buge rffair. The Bazoo acknowledges the and the head of the house could not understand from what source she received it; so, by a young man who is employed as night other town.

Discharged and Dismissed. Yesterday, in 'Pquire Fisher's court, Guy Fox (colored) was arraigned on a

-Best No. 1 lake salt, 160

The Alleged Fire Bug.

sapper and other refreshments: wed until March 4th, but will call it and

COMMENCING

WE WILL OPEN THE SPRING CAMPAIGN

UNHEARD OF BARGAINS

The most extensive All linen damasks from 25 cts.

223 Ohio Street.

Has Been Duping Sedalians.

Under Protext of Being Hungry He Palm-Handled the City's Best Business Men.

during Friday and yesterday a "fy" That book peddler is a slick one. His roung men who put in most of his trace tongue is hung in the middle and both ends lusting around the botele and calcons, and move at one time. His talk was irrisist. made himself frosh with all whom he lible. He was suave, genteel and never a The distance is only ninety-six miles, came in contact. He sported good clothes, loss to express his thoughts. He was soon but they probably thought the trip too and his manners were polished, while his the hero of the occasion. He was a tem-dinner, when the young men said:

lia cooler, is from that village, notwithto his wife, and filed with sentiments that tion."

etanding, Mr. Brown says he is from the should some from none other than a husOf course, under the circumstances, the tended to be wedded anyhow, but not at

That owing to the inclement weather, the personal time in the personal t

Special to the Sunday Morning Bason

HARRIBAL, Feb. 26. Considerable excitement was created here testimony the prisoner was discharged. of small pox had developed at Griggsville, honest in their endeavors, but the next visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance of time an itinerant female temperance evanonce alone! And one single bottle of Hop discoveded that Lisette's father died was to prove to me the strength of she had the joker. calves from Romelfoenger, but as she was unable to give security for the costs, the case was dismissed.

This is the nearest the epidemic has approached to Hannibal, and not a little peddlers.

alarm is felt. The Larceny Case.

vand, who keeps up a constant disturbance, to the great disgust of Childers.

GERTIE. THE GABBER.

MORNING, How a Scandal Caused Mrs. A Called Meeting of the Board Barnes to Marry a Friday Night. Book Peddler.

> Something Begarding the Woman Who Talked Temperance in Sedelia.

The resders of the Bazoo will, when their attention is called to it, recollect house of representatives, a meeting of the the advent of Mrs. Gertie T. Barnes into this entry last fell. She came here as a temperance lecturess, and stopped at first at Mrs. Berger's hotel, on Main street. She lectured here two or three different times, lectured here two or three different here. under the auspices of the Good Templars that the consideration of the resolution beferent success.

cents per temperance registered at the Palace hotel in Batler, Mo, on December 9, 1880, from right of the people of the state to deter-Detroit, Michigan,

Under sheetings, pillow cases, muslins and linens, Antique linen tidies. A big stock of Nottingham western town, and consulted with her so ca'ed; now, therefore, be it the 15th of December was the time selected ment shall be accomplise for the lecture. On the morning of that In accordance with the above resolutions

PARTY OF LADIES AND GENTLEMEN from Butler, consisting of Mrs. Baruce, Rev. J. Wesley Johnson and a number of others whose names the reporter did not get took the morning train to Rich Hill, which e twelve miles distant. They arrived a Rich Hill and registered at the Dean hotel. On the arrival of the temperance cavalcade at Rich Hill, a new candidate for the

That a certain Pacific brakeman has lots of business in the vicinity of the gas house, on the north side of the trick.

That Sedalia will have a court house that will be an ornament to the county at mo distantday. The thing is booming.

That Ed. Conner was the happiest man in town yesterday, over the fact that his wife presented him with twins Friday night.

The difficulty was finally settled, but not until Clark had

THE LECTURE.

That be wore a hat about an large or a mail-sized saucer, which was thrown on the back of his head in regular and the back of his head and the back of his head in regular and the back of his head in regular and the back of his the hotels in Jefferson City. ted her lectures by imaginary anecdotes On his arrival here be started out to and incidents of a drunkerd's life, which, beauty.

That any young man with a nobby suit of clother can get up a firstation with some of the would-be elite young ladies of the scene followed, Clark see the second first that night will be the second for any scene followed, Clark see the second first that night will be the second for any scene followed, Clark see the second first that night will be the second for any second for any second followed, Clark see the second first thin and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second first him and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second for any second for any second first him and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second for any second for any second first him and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second for any second for any second first him and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second for any second for any second first him and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second for any second for any second for any second first him and secont him as follows:

After the fecture the Dean house was second for any second for any

This conversation took place in front of what embarrassed the local temperates Kaiser's, and Rube told him he should be workers, who had been "holding Mrs fed. He was about to take him in for Barnes up" as a bright and shining light. The Town of the Southwest Which That if you want to hear the Intest joke on a newly married couple at Warrensburg, ask conductor Al thed. It is a good one, and Seed is always ready to tell it.

That Clinton indignantly denies the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the conductor of the charge that J. J. Brown, now in the Sedachard conductor of the cond standing, Mr. Brown says he is from the small pox city.

—That A. I. Corum, late a compositor in the News office, and who is said to have been mashed fearfully on one of the girls in the office, is laying off at the Knobs, on account of a recent illness.

—That owing to the inclement weather, Dr. King's lecture on "Hash" his been in the office, is laying lecture on "Hash" his been ity with divers persons, and informed her the circumstances, the denotes a husband.

—A good four-horse omnibus is run be donation was given, and young Stearns would help the matter, wby, we are will-been would help the matter, wby, we are will-been mach one of the girls in each instance a small amount.

—That owing to the inclement weather, Dr. King's lecture on "Hash" his been ity with divers persons, and informed her the circumstances, the donation was given, and young Stearns would help the matter, wby, we are will-been would help the matter, wby, we are will-been the coroted Frank Donohos, Johnny Landen and a newspaper reporter, receiving in each instance a small amount.

It is said that he interviewed no less than the interviewed no less than the gratulations of their temperance friends very modestly.

Mrs. Barnes-Parker did not lecture any to her me ic.

Jim's Misfortune.

Yester ay forenoon, while a number of workmen were engaged in transferring saw the calaboose, as he has not been able to logs from the narrow gauge cars to those of pay his $20 fine. He stated to a Baxoo the Missouri Pocific, by means of a block visiting his brother at this place. representative last evening that he had and tackle, some portion of the machinery written to his brother in Callaway county, and a piece of hoard and rope and expected him to arrave to-day, when struck one of the laborers, named Jim Ma-

WON'T GIVE IT UP.

And a Committee of One Hundred Appointed to Look After the Capital Removal.

On receipt of information here Friday afternoon that the capital removal q esheard of trade was called by the president, fore the 31st general assembly, providing for the submission to a vote of the people of Missouri of a constitutional amendment Leaving Sedalia, Mrs. B. went west to removing the capital of the state from the of the neighborhood aspired for her Warrensburg, Holden, Pleasant Hill and city of Jefferson to the city of Sedalis, has hand, but she cared for only one, who harrisonville, and finally the woman of temperance registered at the Palace hotel

Whereas, It is the reasonable desire and hood, and to whom she was plighted in marriage. mine by their votes where the cest of Resolved. That the president and executive committee of the board of trade select and appoint a committee of one hundred It was decided to secault the bar-rooms (100) representative citizens of Sedalta to of Rich Hill first. The Rev. J. Wesley take the matter in charge, and to propose of Rich Hill first. The Rev. J. Wesley take the matter in charge, and to propose Johnson, a Methodist clergyman of Batler, and carry out such measures as they may couple in the least. Lisette's parents the gate. A minute, however, and who was a prominent temperance worker, deem best calculated to finally secure the promised to do all they could, but she was in the arms of Louis. became, for the occasion, Mrs. Barnes' ad- submission of the proposed constitutional vance agent. He went to Rich Hall, hired amendment to a vote of the people; and a hall, and made all the necessary arrange- Resolved, That said committee select its ments for the appearance of the heroine of own officers. fill any vacancies in its num this story upon the temperance restrum of bers, and continue to meet and act from the frontier mining town. The evening of time to time until the object of its appoint-the tollowing gentlemen were vesterd as the committee of one hundred :

- 1
	J. D Crawford,	W. P. King.
f	A. H. Conkwright,	Geo. L. Faulhaber,
		E. A. Phillips,
а	J. C. Barber,	J. H. Mertz,
b	J. D. Briggs.	Dr. E. C. Evans,
ı	Albert Parker,	C. Newkirk,
	Jao. Mentgomery, Jr.,	J. C. Thopson,
	Jno. R. Siewart,	W. R. Taomas.
-	J. P. Leake.	John Dalby,
	J. H. Hogue,	R. Ritter,
303	S. C. Hold.	Ahe Mever,
•	W. J. Malby.	Peter Brandt,
	Frank Newton.	Wm. Latour.
	Ira Hi sedale,	A. H. Kandell,
•	Wm. F. ligenfritz,	Wm. Heck,
		B. G. Wilkerson, J. R. Barrett,
-	Dr. H. W. Wood,
	C. W. Brown,	D. f. Holcomb, E. R. Blair,
	4. L. Goodwin,	C. M. A Chaney,
2	Y. H. Kehoe, Maj. Wm. Gontry.	Reuben Moses,
•	J. D. Sicher.	B. H. lugram.
	Jao. A. Lacy.	8. W. Ritchey.
	E. L. Phipps.	J. H. Bothwell.
- 1	John F. Philips.	E. J. Smith,
	A. P. Morey.	Bryson Brown,
- 1	A. S. Fernald,	J. B. Rickman,
	Warder Cumming.	F. A. Sampson,
	J. A. C. Brown,	C. Hre.
•	Miller Bullard,	or. W. H Evans.
đ	Frank Houston,	Geo. M. Rabenek.
	R. B. I.von.	F. E Hoffman.
d	S. L. Highleyman,	O. A. Crandell,
- 1	Matt Offield.	C H. Gau-s.
n	J. M. Clute,	Seciales Democrat,
•	Secialia Sazon,	8-da'in Engle.
	Sedalia Evening News,
	Gen. P. B. Jankson.	M. Harter,
-	J. L. Hail,	J. C. Parm-ree,
	Wm. M. Poore,	Jno Antes,
١,	T. W. Cloney.	R. T. Gentry,
553.4	Geo. T. Brown,	John Yeater.
•	J. W Hurress,	D. Lesy.
	I. Welf.	R. T. Miller,
	Dr. Trader,	P. H. Sangree.
	D. H. Smith.	D. Biocher,
-	Rod Gailte,	Wm. S. Mackey.
•	John G Allen.	R. L. Lampton,
	Adam ittel,	e'. W. Bullen.

come up before the meeting.
A. D. JAYNES,

President Board of Trade.

BUILER.

-Butler bas a great number of churches. -The court house needs a cost of paint. -G. W. Walton is a subscriber to the -The Butler Times has just put in is Boss.

sent. We believe the schedule for visite come of us?"

LAMONTE ITEMS.

-The new furniture store is now open

New Bailroad North.

fear might be true; tortured by the prospect of a houseless family to feed, and outraged in every maidealy feel-

A OLEIGH RIDE.

Around One waist.

A dash, A clash,

A crash

A drink, A bete, A fond

LISETTE.

Lisette Armand was the pride the village as well as the delight of her parente, for she was as beautiful as the was good. All the young men hood, and to whom she was plighted her little brother and sisters.

purpose, though, as vet. I cannot recognize it. But God will make it all

With all her economy and self-

Good night, when you look at your

"Dear, dear Mr. Rodin," she said, "only consent to wait till mother gets The most extensive, as well as the well-till we can look about us; and I will surrender all claim to the hand of Louis, if that-

But farmer Rodin did not allow her 99 to conclude the sentence. Seizing his cane, he thundered forth, black with Another new line of those elegant 99c "Out of my house, you heggar

You talk of surrendering my son! I would cut my son off without a sou if ver he looked at you again." And as the affrighted girl, who momentarily expected to be struck, burried 99 forth, still sobbing, he followed her, and, standing on the steps, cried after Spring bosiery, handkerchiefs. Hamher, "never let me see your face in the village again. If I find you about to-morrow, and there's and balance still due me, I'll have your mother in The first sorrow that Lisette ex- jail before noon; so take good advice perienced was when Louis, her be- and te off, all of you."

trothed, wishing to earn something for Poor Lisette hastened down the pleaishing, set out for Paris, where he garden walk, subbing till her whole intended to stay a year. His father, frame shook. Mechanically she purthough a wealthy farmer, was famed sued her way, for her apron was at for his penuriousness, and though he her eves to check her tears, and so gave his consent to the marriage of she did not see that right before her Louis, he refused to seeist the young stood a well-known form, just within they had a large family, and Louis "What sile my pretty Lisette?" he could not expect them to be at the en- cried, "Weeping, and here? There tire charge of furnishing the new is some mystery in all this of which I household; besides he had a high apirit, and would not have consented father's death in Paris, dear one, and to it even if their means had been knowing that you would need the consolation of affection now, it ever, I left About six months after Louis had all and hastened hither. But the loss heen gone, a fresh sorrow assailed of a parent cannot explain these tears Lisette, and one that unde her forget for awhile even her lover's absence. Her father sickened and died, and when his affairs came to be settled, it cruel to you, and he has been telling offered me." He was afterward reconciled with the faculty and in new conciled with the faculty and is now. was found that he was insolvent, in- you that he withdraws his consent. stead of being in the comfortable cir. But fear not, sweet Lisette. I will be one of the staunchest supporters of the cumstances that common report had your true love still." asserted. To add to Lisette's distress,

At last the poor girl found words left alone to provide for the wants of and sob afresh.

"No, no," she cried, leaning on her For several weeks she struggled on, lover's shoulder, "it is not that-or, nursing her mother half the night, not all that. You must think of me awful wicked for a husband and wife and working assiduously the entire no more. We are poor now, very to sit down together of an evening day. Often she denied herself more than half her meals in order to sat- away from her lover, as if he no longer where the harm comes in. isfy the craving appetites of her little belonged to her, and looking him in "Wny," soid the colonel, a few household. Little by little she parted the face steadily, but oh! how mouru- days ago, when the subject of card with such articles of furniture as could fully, continued, "and your father is playing was under discussion, "does be spared, that she might obtain going to turn us into the street be- any one pretend to say that my wife means to purchase food or medicine: and at last sold her own personal cannot marry a beggar, Louis, and I without disputing and arguing and trinkets. Yet she never complained, am one now. So farewell-for- getting mad over it? Perhaps loafers "My troubles come from heaven," she ever." would say, "and for some beneficial

She spoke the last word with diffi- years and never have a word." culty, making an effort to pass Louis The others shook their heads in a as she uttered it, and gain the high- dubious way, and the nettled colonel closer to his heart than ever.

denial, however, she had been unable to provide for the rent of their dwell- sert thee, Lisette, from this hour out. produced the cards and said: ing, which she knew would be due. Your words annoyed me for a mo- "May, I was told to-day that you But this gave her compartively little ment, for even I, who know my and I couldn't play cards without disuneasinese, for her landlord was the lather's miserliness so well, did not puting and getting into a row. Darfather of Louis. And parsimonious as believe he could be so cruel. But I ling, draw up here." one morning a bailiff came into the o labor we shall not want, dear one. a heart. he said gruffly, had been owing two entire days.

In vain Lisette informed him of he said cheerfully, "it shall purchase growled the colonel as his chin fell, her perent inability to pay the rent. back the old. And then, with thy all his other cards being black. In vain she asked for delay. The of mother, and thy brothers and sisters, "Play to that and play fair," ficer told her that his orders were per- now mine also, we will be happy in said as she put down the joker.

The trade of the merchants here is good, considering the mud blockade.

A sidewalk from the depot to town is badly needed during the mud blockade.

Mrs. Cora W. Harwi is the postmistrees here. She has been in office abouteix a story so mortifying, but the household goods sold by the public erier.

But suddenly a shrick was nearly from the bouse, which arrested the deport to town is parting steps of Louis. Again and again the shrick rent the air, and immediately the servant of farmer Roding in, the sole female occupant of the house, appeared at the door, crying the model. I'd encourage you a little. Give me that her moster mes doing. was to be turned into the street and But suddenly a shrick was heard don't you lead out with an ace?"

out a parallel in that country in the line of public entert inment. The place is clean, neat, commodious, and its table is per excellence. The proprietors, Mesers, Shaw & the clink of gold, as poor Lisette distance, which is the clink of gold, as poor Lisette distance, which is the clink of gold, as poor Lisette distance, which is the clink of gold, as poor Lisette distance, which is the priest was but the work of a few moments. All, however, was in bouff didn't work. She took it up and wain. The miser never recovered his consciousness. Before the sun went to order it up. The few moments. All, however, was in bouff didn't work. She took it up and the consciousness. Before the sun went down Louis was without a surviving Refusing suit is a regular loafer's

The fee of doctors is an item that very are honest, indeed we are; if you which the happy couple had hoped for l'm going to beat you out of eight, many persons are interested in just at pre-Temperance is a virtue. The people of in $3, which would tax a man confined to gelist comes along they are going to look a Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 insolvent, and that she would conselittle out for breakers and smooth book and all the year's sickness.—Post.

| Consequently not have the fortune which out for these sorrows. I should never ad, as she clapped her hands in gles. quently not have the fortune which out for these sorrows, I should never ed, as she clapped her hands in glee. had been promised with her, Farmer have known for what it was."

"You didn't follow suit," match between his own and her. He Bob Toombe and his Brass Band. thought the present opportunity a Atlanta Constitution. good one to effect his purpose. If he I suppose every one connected in could drive the family from the vil- any way with the University of quiry of his son, even if Louis, as the impetuous, irresistible nature, which wed until March 4th, but will call it and continue until the 5th if it enits you.

A L CLIKEREARD.

Coll. Snoodly stated to a Bazoo reporter yearday that he would clear the brothern of the offense charged or would saw wood for a living during the balance of his days. He anys the other merchants of Brownst ville are jealous of the Hoffmans on sc to count of their prosperity in business, and are doing their best to secure a conviction. He has no doubts as to the final outcome. He has no doubts as to the final outcome. The crass man.

Steen Devans the crass man.

Louis Rach 4th, but will call it and to the great disgust of Childers.

A L CLIKEREARD.

Coffman, the other party arrested in concention with the larcent, is still in jail. He saw the larcent, is still in jail. He saw the offense charged or would saw wood for a living during the balance of his days.

He anys the other merchants of Brownstville are jealous of the Hoffmans on sc to continue and the stream of the define having sold a watch to Childers, and say have within a to continue the first state of the party of the great disgust of Childers.

Coffman, the other party arrested in concention with the larcent, is still in jail. He say what.

—Meant, J. R. McConnell and D. Wiekal have received their beig lows, said be with a frown. "Honest people have something else to do than to support beggars, said he with a frown. "Honest people have something else to do than to support beggars, will be wish a frown. "Honest people have something else to do than to support beggars, will be with a frown. "Honest people have something else to do than to support beggars, will be with a frown. "Honest people have something else to do than to support beggars, will be with a frown. "Honest people have something else to do than to support beggars, as acroust and the will be a serious of their work.

They are defined and support is gardeness and a respect to make a good thing on the provide their best to make a good thing the policy of the stream of the definition of their wor casts off such a shame-faced piece as submitted, but on commencement day, John B. Alexander, Jr., will lecture at vourself; he'll marry no beggar's when the chapel was crowded with To all who are suffering from the errors with's hall on Monday evening, February child. You needn't thing your cry- visitors, and the seniors vehemently and untiscretions of youth, nervous we about Louis, and which she began to Ladies' trimmed underwear in large variety and elegant patterns can be found at

ing. Lisette etill ventured a last 99 Cent Store cheapest line of picture frames in Sedalia can be suen at

Cent Store

lamps, and a large invoice of the famous 99c bowls and pitchers, bave just been received at Cent Store burg edging, towels and notious, cheaper than the cheapest, at Cent Store W.L. BEITLER & CO.'S BOSTON 99e STORES

227 Ohio Street,

then in the chapel, and also of clear-Then, in as cool a manner as pos sible, he placed himself in a chair and made an oration such, it is said, as was never spoken by a student here before or since. He never received his diploma, though after his celebrated Boston speech it was sent to bim, but was returned with the answer. "D-n conciled with the faculty, and is now

A Very Quiet Game There are some folks who think it cause we cannot pay our rent. You and I can't play a game of euchre can't, but we could play a thousand he was, she did not suppose that will not curse him, for he is my pa- "Dearest, we will not have a word he would harass her, under her pres- rent still. Yet his home can be my of dispute—not one," she replied as ent complications of miseries. How home no longer. My lot is thine she put away her work. The colonel was she astonished, therefore, when benceforth, and while I have hands shuffled away and dealt and turned up

Mrs. Barnes-Parker did not lecture any more in Bates county.

It would not have been pleasant for her under the circumstances.

Alt. and Mrs. Parker remained at the Palace botel until December 27, when they left consensibly for Kansse City.

They may have goes there, but as far as the reporter, while at Batier, was able to learn, they have not been heard from since they left the place.

Mrs. Barnes-Parker did not lecture any more in Bates county.

Hannah, well understance the wants of the public, and they know how too treat them.

—Real state transactions are picking up on the field of the remaind.

"What," cried the old man, rising in anger, "have you came here for no purpose but to tell me that you don't intend to pay me?

They may have goes there, but as far of any in the section, and will be on top, since they left the place.

Mrs. Barnes-Parker did not lecture any more in Bates county.

They may have goes there, but as far of any in the section, and will be on top, since they left the place.

Mrs. Barnes-Parker did not lecture any more in Bates county.

What, "cried the old man, rising in anger, "have you came here for no purpose but to tell me that you don't intend to pay me?

"We would pay you if we could," of any in the section, and will be on top, since they left the place.

Mrs. Barnes-Parker did not lecture any hat was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

The rage of the cruel landlord, it what was, to him, vast wealth.

T

oved the hard- Providence in having visited upon her trick, she the next two, he the fourth, hearted miser. Ever since he had little family death and poverty. "It and when he put out his last trump

> "Oh, yes I did." "I know better, you refused spades." "But I badu't any." "You hadn't, ch? Why didn't you have any? I never saw a hand with-

> "Why, husband, I know how to play carde. "And don't I? Wasn't I playing euchre when you were learning to walk! I say you stocked the cards on

> "No I didn't! You are a poor player; you don't know how to

> "I-I-why, maybe I am a fool, and maybe I don't know anything, and so you can play slone and have all the trumpe every time!" He pushed back, grabbed his paper

he smiled again. CARD

Frozen to Death.

-WITH-

-IX-HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS.

Fast colored Turkey red. 50

A SLICK PALM-HANDLER

No doubt many people of Sedalia noticed the person of B. F. Parker, a book peddler.

but as that individual has never shown up these witnesses.
here, it is quite likely he is working some The wedded couple received the con-

Patally Stabbed. HARFIBAL, Mo., Feb. 28. At three o'clock this afternoon a difficulwas appointed some two years later in St. woman, and formerly bore a good reputa- ty occurred on Main street, near the Eogle

Luis was subsequently arrested, but was released on a $3,000 bond.

Walter S. Childers to still confined in lage they would probably, reflected, Georgia has heard of the famous oak go to some distant neighborhood to in front of the chapel, and in conthe fine arressed against him by the city would be paid.

He seemed to be worried considerably, and pronounced his present quarters only a superfound, upon examination, at Clifton, this county.

A visit to his brother.

—Dr. T. Y. Cox returned home on Thurshide their disgrace; and, in that nection with it I will relate an event, they would be herond the inspectors of Bob Toombe, showing his only of his son, even if Louis, as the impetuous, irresistible nature, which and pronounced his present quarters only a small improvement on hell. In the adioining cell is the crasy man, Steve Deioining cell is the crasy man and the crasy man

Rodin had determined to break off the sign of a silver quarter, and his knees were ball, was well attended and enjoyed and them out. Accordingly his naturally 10mos and been attending conege the next morning the young gents were badly bruised up. Some of the other work- the next morning the young gents were relentless breast was now more steeled two years, and was within a week of very lively from some cause—we will not to nit then ever SEDALIA NO. 95 MAIN ST., BOOSVILLE, NO ing it of nearly all its audience.

her mother, overcome by this double to speak, for heretofore she had only its results, then surely Dr. Bull's Cough blow, sickened, and the young girl was been able to cling helplessly to Louis Syrap is pre-emmently the best cough syrap manifest by-and-by; and in him I way. But his arms were around her walked straight to a stationer's and in a moment, and preseed her bought the nicest pack he could find. That evening when his wife was ready "Now, may God forget me if I de- to sit down to her fancy work be house, and demanded the rent, which, I have money with me, earned in "I order it up." she observed, as first-close job office.

-A good four-horse omnibus is run bewas forthcoming, the whole family fore, and smile again as of old."

- A good four-horse omnibus is run be-out at least one spade in it!

and wheeled around to the gas, and it was nearly thirty-six hours hefore